Poke Fresh does a good enough job of giving you the fast-casual poke bowl experience. However, they could stand to give more in the proteins department, as the amount is rather small for the price. $10+ for a regular bowl is fair for poke, but when you skimp on the actual chunks of protein and compensate for the toppings, it's tad bit stingy.

Poke in the Bowl has all the essential proteins you'd expect at a poke place, with plenty of toppings and options for sides. The food is also delicious and the service is super friendly and fast. I got the regular-sized bowl, which entails two proteins; I was skeptical about until I realized how filling the regular ended up being!
