Beaver Dam is located between Madison and Fond du Lac in Dodge County. As the name suggests, the site of the town is of an old beaver dam and many beavers lived in the stream that flows into Beaver Dam River. Thomas Mackie and his son-in-law, Joseph Goetschius, were the first to make Beaver Dam their home after making a few trips to the area in ...

Carved ornament depicting beavers, representing the name of the building, is found over the Beaver Street entrance and below the primary cornice of the base. [2] The building was the headquarters from 1904 until 1921 of the Munson Steamship Company , an American steamship shipping line active in the Cuban and South American sugar and lumber trade; the company owned the building from 1919 to 1937.

My original reason for reading Beaver Street: A History of Modern Pornography is that my world overlapped with author Robert Rosen's world during the 1980's. I worked as an adult film actor (under the name Alan Adrian or Spike), a representative for magazine distributing and printing companies that profited by serving the porn industry, and a free lance writer and photographer for some of Rosen's colleagues.
