I read Covet, book two of this series, before working backwards and picking up, In This Life. Now I'm even more crazy about David Belotti. Too bad this story was from Lottie's POV. In truth, she was a compelling heroine, though Lottie did get on my nerves sometimes because, as a psychologist, she didn't always display the best judgment.

I also have a fascination for past lives. Whip that all up together, and that pretty much explains what I write. When I penned In This Life, the first book in the Past Life Series, I focused on second chances that came about from past lives and presented themselves again in a newer, more current life. Love and lust, retribution and revenge ...

Sexy, leather-clad, Harley loving angels. And -as cheesy as that all may sound- this series promises to be great! Covet introduces us to Jim Heron, a carpenter with a secret military background, who gets pinned with the most important job of his life, well... of anybody's life: he is to help determine whether humanity is good or bad.

Covet (Fallen Angels. #1) by J.R. Ward - Goodreads

I have read all three books in the Past Life Series and each one is even better than the last. With a title like Yesterday People, I couldn't have resisted the last in this series! The author has created an intricate story filled with secrets, suspense, mind-blowing suppositions and a love which has spanned twelve thousand years.

Covet (Fallen Angels, Book 1) I was thrilled to find out from another blogger that this series occurs in the same area and timeline as the "Black Dagger Brotherhood" series. In fact, one of the characters that we glimpsed in the BDB series (Marie-Terese) is one of the main characters in this book, and we are even granted a quick appearance by Phury (don't [...])

The Past Life Series: Books 1-3 by Terri Herman-Poncé

Advance Copy Review. Release date: September 17, 2013. When I first heard that the author of one of my favorite books, On The Island, had written a new book, I didn't even need to know what it was about, I knew I was reading it no matter what. With Covet, Tracey Garvis Graves has once again tackled a potentially controversial topic in a very realistic and relatable fashion.
