This book, Getting Organized in the Google Era by former CIO of Google Douglas
C. Merrill, hits the joint between those two passions quite firmly. It

Online Library
Getting Organized
In The Google Era
looks at how people organize all of the information they need to maintain their life on a daily basis and talks about how recent advances in technology (particularly cloud
computing - where you save your data on a
web server, a la Gmail or Facebook) have potentially changed or improved how we organize ourselves.
