I go to daily Holy Mass at noon with about 20-40 people at my parish... We have been singing hymns (a cappella) during Offertory and Holy Communion. It all just happened spontaneously over the past year. The congregation relies on one lady and myself to make the song selections before the Mass, which we do by reading the 1st reading, the psalm and the Gospel of the day before coming to Mass ...

Hymn suggestions are given below, but the service should avoid the feeling of a lessons & carols service. A mixture of psalms sung by congregation, choir and choir with congregation should be offered, with an occasional hymn possibly taking the place of the psalms. The hymns given after the New Testament lessons are for use as a Gradual ...
