IFRS 9 will be mandatorily applicable for periods starting 1 January 2018 or later, so you still have some time. However, you can adopt IFRS 9 earlier, if you want. In this case, if you adopt IFRS 9 before 1 February 2015, you can adopt previous versions of IFRS 9, meaning that you can continue with impairment rules under older IAS 39.

Under IFRS 9, in this case, you don't need to separate, under IAS 39, you do separate if the 3 conditions are not met (one of them is selling in a currency different than the functional currency and that could be your case). If you do need to separate => revalue the embedded forward and account for it separately (no revaluation on receivable),
