Iron Maiden - A Matter of Life and Death (album review 11 ...
Music videos were made for the songs "The Reincarnation of Benjamin Breeg" and "Different World". The title is considered to be named after the 1946 British World War II film "A Matter of Life and Death" (also known as "Stairway to Heaven"). Unusually for a major label album, A Matter of Life and Death was not mastered.

Iron Maiden - A Matter Of Life And Death - Amazon.com Music
After months of waiting, colossal heavy metal band Iron Maiden has finally released their 14th album, A Matter of Life and Death. The latest highly anticipated offering from the band continues the progressive influenced direction that they've been taking over the last few years again, with contributions from all members.

A Matter Of Life And Death [Collectors Box] - Iron Maiden
Iron Maiden's newest release, A MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH, continues in the vein of progressive material that began with Seventh Son, evolved in Brave New World and Dance of Death, and finally culminates in their newest album. Gone are almost all concessions to brevity such as The Wickerman, The Fallen Angel, or Wildest Dreams.

Iron Maiden - Different World

A Matter of Life and Death and A Matter of the Beast were two concert tours by Iron Maiden from 2006 to 2007. The first tour was unique, as the set list primarily consisted of the band's most recent release, A Matter of Life and Death, in its entirety, although this got a mixed response from audiences. Unusually, the first leg didn't include "The Number of the Beast", a song which Iron Maiden had previously played on every tour since its inception. The second part of the tour, in celebration of AllMusic Review by James Christopher Monger [+] Gone were the murky, over-produced set pieces that clogged 2000's Brave New World and in their place fell blistering slabs of Piece of Mind -era metal. That trend continues with their 14th full-length album, Matter of Life and Death, a more elaborate and meandering experience than Dance of Death,...
