One of my Dramione favorites is definitely Isolation. It's not dark but it takes place during the war and I think Bex-Chan does a great job with characterizations. linkffn(6291747) You can find links for Everythursday's fics on this page. The Fallout is the fic that everyone loves. Personally I didn't care for it but I'm in the minority there.

Bex-chan, you have RUINED my life. Isolation was a recommendation from my sis and I was quite eager to read it after she told me about a few scenes. She told me to read it during my exams, but I started it after my exams were finished. Best fucking decision I ever made. Isolation was just... I can't even express into words what Isolation made ...

Bex-Chan is the author of my VERY FAVORITE Dramione fanfic (Isolation), so I was excited to find that she had another novel-length Dramione fic. Per the description on her FanFic.net page, this is actually her first dip into Dramione, and I will say that it showed a bit. I totally loved it, and it was well done, but it def felt like a debut.

Chapter 2: Punch.. "She's improved," Snape commented, eyeing the door with a pensive look. "You have no idea," McGonagall sighed, frowning as Hermione's protests only grew louder, ringing around her office and making her cringe. "She's been practising a lot with Horace and myself." "I can see that," he nodded, glancing over to Draco.
