It is highly indicative that Kundera's "official biography," printed in the revised French editions of his works, reads thus: "Milan Kundera was born in Czechoslovakia, Since 1975 he has been living in France," This terseness is a result of his fervent belief that biography should be bracketed when reading a novel, and Kundera has repeatedly and explicitly defended himself against what he calls the "biographical furor" (TB, 266) of many readers.

Abstract. Milan Kundera describes Lucie Sebetka, the tacit heroine in The Joke, as "a mysterious, elusive" character who "stands, so to speak, behind glass; she cannot be touched" (The Art of the Novel, p. 86). The Joke is about, among other things, the depersonalization of individual existence, the impossibility of self-definition in the post-1948 Communist Czechoslovakia.
