It was very well written from start to finish. I got the impression that the author was a real

down to earth person
in the way he wrote,
and that he started out
like every other
freelancer in the business, not having a clue how to build a
good client base, and
not thinking of oneself
as a business.

think like a freelancer
every so often,
especially as it relates to communication.

Remember, if you want
to have a flexible job,
ultra strong
communication skills
are one of the top (if not the top) soft skills that remote employers
look for in job
candidates.

Stop thinking about freelance writing and start acting like a rockstar freelance writer. As a new freelance writer, I thought I could do things all on my own but I only ended up wasting time, making a lot of mistakes, and losing potential clients. I'm glad I found Elna when I decided to go back to the drawing board.
