These six novels are interlinked with the characters all living in the same house in an American city; first occupied by Jerry's Pa and Ginger in WASTED PAIN, then by Jerry and his gals in subsequent stories. The central characters are Jerry, Patsy, and Erica and their adventures often occur close to the grim town of Crickenville in Ohio.

Reginald Stinkbottom - ABOUT

Reginald Stinkbottom lives with his grandmother, squirrels, cats, and a mouse. His favorite food is baked beans. One day his grandmother could no longer take the smell and she moves out the house to Hong Kong. That depresses Reginald so he eats even more beans. When Reginald meets Gertrude, his life changes for the better. This book is written in rhyme.
