In the personal essay, you must both show AND tell. As the author of a personal essay, you are speaking directly to your reader. So, in a short story, you create a setting and characters and circumstances that show or reveal that, for instance, a woman named Mary is suffering from profound isolation and loneliness in her role as a farmer's wife. In a personal essay, you tell the reader that your friend Mary is isolated and lonely in her role as a farmer's wife.
