Editorial Reviews. Santa Claus Conquers The Martians is a movie that, on its face -- simply based on its title, as well as its reputation -- seems difficult to defend. But if one allows for the fact that it is simply a goofy low-budget, independently-shot kids' film from 1964, the picture does offer a certain charm that eludes critics who are not able to find Hollywood professionalism or ideas ...

Because that's what Santa Claus Conquers the Martians is: a case of food poisoning. There are layers and layers of awfulness in this movie, and it really is an unforgettable experience. The actors are all stoned out of their minds and extremely ugly. The title pretty much explains the plot, although there's not really a lot of "conquering".
