Generally, try to use the active voice whenever possible.

Passive voice sentences often use more words, can be vague, and can lead to a tangle of prepositional phrases.

refer to the intellectual faculty by which humans seek or attain knowledge or truth. Reason is the power to think rationally and logically and to draw inferences: "Mere reason is insufficient to convince us of its [the Christian religion's] veracity" (David Hume). Intuition is perception or comprehension, as of truths or facts ...
