Weapons of Mass Deception In reading an article about the world's biggest money hoarder, I came across a bit that highlighted the forces mounted against the human race. It reveals a lot about how our natural tendency toward frugality, and care for Mother Nature, is under relentless attack by cold, calculating, self-interested individuals.

Schechter's new documentary "WMD: Weapons of Mass Deception" asserts that Americans were cheated out of thorough coverage during the war on Iraq. Investigating the theory that audiences are at the mercy of a media with ulterior motives, the film explores the paradigm of fact versus 'good television,' and provides substantiation to those who have suspected all along that American audiences are hardly getting "the truth and nothing but."
