by Saloma Miller

Furlong

If the Amish way of life could be separated from the religion, I may still be living their lifestyle. But I found the religion to be a punitive one that embraces the pain of life more than it does the joy of life. Perhaps this is left over from the days when our ancestors endured persecution for their

I peeked down the hall and glimpsed an Amish dress to the left of the front door, and the shadowy figure of an Amish man to the right. Driven by instinct, I walked to the door, opened it, and let in my sister Sarah and my brother Joe. Behind them, I could see

Why I Left The Amish
(2011) About book: It was interesting to read about the amish,
however her writing
style was kind of dry, so it took me awhile to get thru it. Her father dies and she goes back and forth between the travel to the funeral
and her life when she was amish.
